Greater Mysuru to be a reality

District Minister V. Somanna discussing a point with Deputy Commissioner Abhiram G. Sankar during his inspection atop Chamundi Hill this morning as MP Pratap Simha and others look on.

Minister Somanna says Plan will be announced by CM during Budget

Mysuru, Feb. 28 (RK&BCT)- Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) might soon assume the shape of Bruhat Mysuru Mahanagara Palike — Greater MCC — as the long-pending proposal to include more villages under the jurisdiction of MCC will get a push in the Karnataka Budget that will be presented by Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa on March 5.

Speaking to reporters after inspecting development works atop Chamundi Hill this morning, District Minister V. Somanna, who also holds the Housing portfolio, said that many villages will be included in the MCC jurisdiction and the plan of 'Greater Mysuru' will be announced in the forthcoming Budget. "I have discussed the issue with Chief Minister Yediyurappa and he has assured me that the proposal will be announced in the Budget," he said.

End of Rs. 2,000 notes?

ATMs being recalibrated to fit more Rs. 500, Rs. 200 and Rs. 100 notes

New Delhi, Feb. 28 (Agencies)- After introducing Rs. 2,000 currency notes post-demonetisation in 2016, the high-value note seems to have lost its sheen in three years.

As part of stopping the use of Rs. 2,000 notes, several banks have initiated the process to recalibrate their ATMs in a bid to completely replace the notes with low denomination notes, said reports. Banks are recalibrating ATMs to replace high-value Rs. 2,000 notes with Rs. 500 notes. Though there is no official confirmation from the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) or other authorities, it is assumed that this could be part of the strategy of the Central Bank to keep a tab on the total amount of high-value currency in circulation.

Technology-software linkage

Scientific discoveries and technology-based inventions that triggered sea-change in the lifestyle of people all over the world for long seem to have not only witnessed unprecedented pace but also yielded place to computer software as the calling that gets admirable wages to the players in the digital world. Even the language of communication among the business fraternity as well as people at large, particularly the urban literati, loaded with acronyms and heavily coded has tended to be marked by novel vocabulary that those belonging to earlier generations have no option other than learning the new grammar if they desire to be heard not only by their aged cohorts but also their progeny. Digging into sources of information relating to any matter under the sun relying on printed matter on paper, now termed as hard copy, is seen as primitive, given the internet, a virtual kaamadhenu of information-seekers, the largest beneficiaries being the students. The number of people peering into the various devices displaying text from the internet in the country is on the cusp of nearing 600 million and counting. The link between computer software and technology at large, represented by the newly coined term information technology has faded the glare that products of technology have earned until the software professionals emerged on the scene like tsunami as it were.

The march of information technology, er computer software field, earning India the enviable top rank globally and wages to its professionals like never before, has enabled the Government to leverage the fast growing employment avenues for the educated youth. Given the number of professionals using computer software for earning their livelihood, there is no guess on what the unemployment scene in the country would have been without this avenue for providing jobs.

The dramatic growth of the field of information technology can be attributed to many factors unique to the field. The establishments not making any unreasonable demands on land and infrastructure, not contributing to pollution of ambient air and, more importantly, a cost-benefit ratio that no customer can afford to ignore are features that have earned patronage of Governments, industry in general, academia and people at large. It cannot be gainsaid that information technology has gained more than what is recognised from other fields of technology, namely mechanical engineering, electrical engineering, electronics and others that are producing devices on which software is mounted. On the authority of Satya Nadella, Chief Executive Officer of Microsoft, however, it is learnt that 72 per cent software jobs are outside tech industry per se.

The dominating presence of software professionals and the field opening wide avenue for job-seekers cannot be sustained unless the industries manufacture the devices and applies the software in the economy. Hence, blind and mad rush as it were to pursue education in the field of computer software needs moderation. The idiom "Man doesn't live by bread alone" says it all. People also need things that give their lives meaning.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Corporate India's well-established aversion to engaging with controversy involving the ideology of the ruling regime — any ruling regime — is being tested in unexpected ways. These engagements are the direct result of this ruling dispensation's ideological mobilisation of society. In August last year one Amit Shukla from Jabalpur, Madhya Pradesh, proudly tweeted that he had cancelled an order on food delivery App Zomato because they had allocated a non-Hindu delivery boy and had declined to change the rider or refund the customer for cancelling. Zomato's witty response: "Food doesn't have a religion, it is religion." Founder Deepinder Goyal backed this up with a politically correct message about India's diversity. "We aren't sorry to lose any business that comes in the way of our values," he said, a tactful way of telling customers to like it or lump it.

Woman had an alcohol-producing bladder

New York: An American woman who had been removed from liver transplant waiting lists for trying to conceal an alcohol addiction recently became the first to be diagnosed with urinary auto-brewery syndrome, with alcohol being produced naturally in her bladder.

When the 61-year-old unnamed woman showed up on the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center's (UPMC) liver transplant waiting list, she had already been kicked off other transplant lists for her alleged drinking problem several times. Multiple urine tests showed that there was ethanol in her urine, but the patient kept denying that she had a drinking problem.

Dr. Kenichi Tamama, medical director of the UPMC Clinical Toxicology Laboratory, analyzed the patient's other lab results and noticed yeast and very high sugar level in her urine. It didn't take long to put two and two together – the yeast caused the sugar to ferment producing alcohol.

Home-maker creates cat-shaped handbags

Tokyo: Japanese housewife and amateur designer Pico, who grew up collecting faux-fur animals, now spends whatever free time she has creating her own cat-shaped handbags.

Pico first attracted media attention five years ago, when photos of one of her incredibly realistic creations went viral on Japanese social media. It didn't take long for her creations to transcend national borders, and soon photos of her most impressive cat bags started circulating on Instagram, Facebook and the like. But despite the massive interest in her works, Pico was quick to announce that she only sold her works in Japan, and only rarely accepted commission projects. As a mother of two, she preferred to dedicate most of her tim to her children.

Online approval for House and Building Plans: A good move

Sir,

It was heart-warming to read the news that house and building plans will be approved online (SOM dated Feb. 26). This process has been effectively followed by many Urban Development and Statutory Bodies.

The key to this process is based on 3 critical factors, which need to be addressed by MCC, MUDA and District Town Planning Committee.

1. Simplification of bye-laws (Ref: Master Plan II - 2031 Mysore Nanjangud Local Planning Area : Zoning of Land Use and Development Control Regulations - Volume III), which do not need interpretation by middlemen.

2. Clarity in land-use and regulations connected with each type of land-use.

3. Establishing a preliminary method for answering queries by "Council of Architecture" approved Architects.

These steps will not only speed up the process but will also ensure that future development is possible without resorting to demolition etc.

I am confident that a lot of well-meaning Mysuru-based Architects will be willing to assist the authorities in establishing a smooth "House and Building Plans approval online" system.

'Tourists' from Iran steal Rs.1.26 lakh from city car showroom

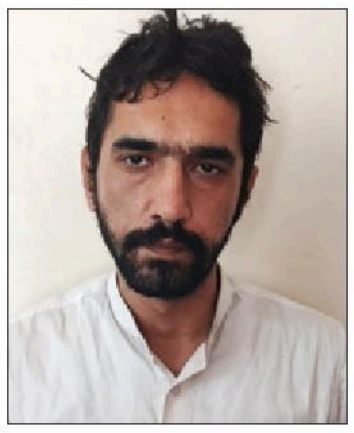
Showroom accountant's attention diverted to commit crime

Mysuru, Feb. 28 (RK&KS)- Two persons, who had stolen Rs. 1.26 lakh from Mandovi Motors True Value showroom on Hunsur Road have been arrested in Bengaluru.

The theft was committed after diverting the attention of the showroom accountant on Jan. 31. The accused are Syed Rostami and Saber Hussain. They are said to be from Iran who had come to Karnataka on a tour.

The duo was arrested about four days ago and interrogation revealed that they had made away with Rs. 1.26 lakh from the showroom in Mysuru.

The accused also revealed that they had committed similar crimes in Mangaluru and Bengaluru.



The photos of the accused, released by the Police.

On Jan. 31, the accused, on the pretext of buying a tiny Ganesha idol for their car, went to the showroom. While one of them was looking at the idols, the other asked the showroom accountant Karthik if he could give him Rs. 2,000 currencies that were printed in 2018 but he did not specify the reason why he wanted those notes.

Karthik obliged and began to look for such currencies. Sensing an opportunity, the accused managed to divert Karthik's attention while the other accused, who by then had looked into the Ganesha idols, pocketed 63 notes of Rs. 2,000 denomination. The accused later left the showroom.

Later when Karthik was counting the currencies, he found Rs. 1.26 lakh missing and suspected that the duo had pocketed them. A complaint was then lodged at Vijayanagar Police Station.

After a long delay, MCC to allot land for Yelethota farmers

Civic body issues notification; asks beneficiaries to re-submit documents

Mysuru, Feb. 28 (BCT)- In a bid to make betel leaf farmers undertake farming activities, the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) has decided to provide alternative lands to farmers of 'Yelethota' whose lands were acquired by the then City Improvement Trust Board (CITB) in 1949 for the development of city. MCC has identified land in Survey Nos. 119, 179 and 180 near Sewage Farm in Vidyaranyapuram and will provide 0.05 gunta land each to 245 betel leaves farmers. This decision follows a Government Order (Urban Development Department 192ACM2016) issued on 16.1.2018.

The Government has sanctioned 30 acres and 25 gunta land exclusively for betel leaf cultivation. The MCC, which is the land-sanctioning authority, is presently marking the sanctioned land and its borders individually with stones.

In a notification issued this morning, the MCC has stated that those who have lost their lands must re-submit their documents and application to Revenue Section of the MCC. The documents have been re-summoned as there is a need to re-identify the beneficiaries after scrutinising the documents. If documents are not re-submitted within a week, the applicants will be considered ineligible and those with documents will be considered and the names will be announced through lottery system, the notification stated.

Land acquired in 1949

The CITB in 1949 had acquired lands from betel leaf farmers at Malalawadi, Kasaba Hobli in Mysuru taluk and had given compensation only to land owners. As those who were growing betel leaf by taking the land on contract were in dire straits, the then Government had ordered to provide 5 guntas land each to 245 farmers. Honouring the Government order, lands were given to the farmers at Nachanahalli but the authorities failed to issue Title Deeds and other related documents due to some problems. The MCC took over the lands in 2004 to dump waste and as such, 98 of the 245 farmers lost the land. The issue pertaining to provide alternative lands to betel leaf growers was pending since a long time. Beneficiaries, after receiving the lands should use it for growing betel leaf and for agricultural purpose only and cannot use the land for commercial purpose. If the beneficiaries are found using the land for commercial purpose, the MCC will confiscate the land.

Stage protest

It may be recalled here that on Wednesday (Feb. 26), Congress workers and farmers of Yelethota, who lost their lands staged a protest at MCC premises demanding alternative lands. The protestors, led by former Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa, said that the MCC was not allocating lands even after the State Government sanctioned land for 245 farmers.

State's first Legal Service Clinic opens at Alanahalli Police Station

Mysuru, Feb. 28 (YDS&BCT)- To ensure that accused and victims of crimes are acquainted with technicalities of the criminal justice system before their statements are recorded, the State's first Police Station Legal Service Clinic, also called Legal Aid Clinic, was inaugurated in city at Alanahalli Police Station.

Karnataka State Legal Services Authority (KSLSA) Member-Secretary G. Basavaraju, who is also the District and Sessions Judge, inaugurated the Clinic on Wednesday.

The idea of the Clinic is to disseminate all the legal options available to the accused, suspect who has been apprehended by the Police and victims of crimes. The Clinic will provide legal assistance free of cost and enable the victim to hire the services of lawyers and prepare him to stand the test of judicial scrutiny.

The Clinic will assist the accused to seek assistance from advocates whose services may be requisitioned on call-basis and whenever there is a case involving the category of persons who are entitled for legal aid services.

Under Article 39A of the Constitution, the State is responsible for arranging legal aid, through the Directive Principles of State Policy, and ensuring that the legal system dispenses justice without discrimination. Under Section 12 of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987, all women and children are entitled to legal aid. The Clinic will provide a better quality of lawyers available to the victims or accused immediately after they reach the Police Station, instead of getting the help at the trial stage.

Speaking after inaugurating the Clinic, Judge Basavaraju said that the Clinic was set up following the directives from the KSLSA. "This is a welcome step. We are basically providing additional help. This will help the victim or the accused get a little more clarity on the case. Generally, a non-legal mind can't process such details which otherwise are significant to the case," he said.

According to a 1994 Supreme Court judgement, as soon as a person is arrested and brought to the Police Station, the Police ought to inform him/ her that they are entitled to Legal Counsel to file a case. The lawyer should also assist the accused or the victim, he explained.

Principal District and Sessions Judge S.K. Vontigodi opined that the people-friendly Legal Service Clinic at Alanahalli Police Station will help such people who are brought to the Police Station on suspicion. "All people are entitled for legal help. Whenever someone is brought to the Station, he must get legal help and made aware of his rights described under Cr.PC Section 41D. That is why an advocate will be appointed to every Police Station and phone number will be mentioned in the notice board at the Police Station," he said.

Whoever is apprehended, can call the phone number and the advocate will attend to him to offer legal assistance. Also, the apprehended person will be made aware of the legal options available to him, Vontigodi explained.

Senior Civil Judge and District Legal Services Authority (DLSA) Member-Secretary B.P. Devamane, Deputy Commissioner of Police (Law and Order) A.N. Prakash Gowda, Mysuru Bar Association President S. Anand Kumar, ACP Shashidhar, Inspector Hariyappa and others were present.

Two years back, a survey was carried out by MCC on expanding its limits as many Gram Panchayats (GPs) have failed to address civic issues. In 2012-13, a proposal was mooted for formation of 'Greater Mysuru' by bringing 110 villages into Corporation limits. In October 2017 the MCC had carried out a survey in 44 villages around the city to bring them to the Corporation fold. However, till now, no decision has been taken in this regard.

Presently, MCC's jurisdiction is restricted to 128.4 sq km area falling within Outer Ring Road (ORR). Several new residential layouts approved by Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) fall outside MCC's limits.

MP prevails on Minister

MP Pratap Simha has made out a case for expanding MCC by including the developed areas falling under GPs. The MP had met Somanna and urged him to do so, so that better amenities can be provided to these areas. With the city growing at a fast pace, GPs such as Alanahalli, Hanchya, Kadakola, Rammanahalli, Hosahundi, Devalapura, Srirampura, Jayapura, Bogadi, Hinkal, Koorgalli, Yelwal and Siddalingapura have become developed areas, the MP argued.

The boundary of MCC was earlier fixed on Oct. 18, 1995, according to Karnataka Municipal Corporation Act 1976. Even after 15 years of drawing the boundary, the city is growing by leaps and bounds, forcing the civic body to attend to the needs of localities situated near its boundary. Of the 41 villages identified to be included in MCC, 11 have already become a part of MCC with the latter providing drinking water facilities. They are: Chamundi Hill, Kesare, Kurubarahalli, Hebbal, Dattagalli, Hebbal, Alanahalli, Srirampura, Metagalli, Rammanahalli, Hootagalli and Hinkal.

Areas falling under many GP limits have residential areas as well as industries and have witnessed a rapid rise in population. The revenue coming to the GPs too had gone up substantially and it has become imperative for the authorities to include these areas in the limits of MCC so that better civic amenities could be provided in the areas, MP told Somanna.

During his inspection at Chamundi Hill this morning, Minister Somanna said that 114 shops for vendors are ready and works were on to build 196 shops. The project is being implemented with a budget of Rs. 4.95 crore. A nominal rent will be fixed and shops will be rented out to vendors, he said and added that all basic amenities will be provided to them and no vendor will be left out.

Deputy Commissioner Abhiram G. Sankar, Muzrai Tahsildar Yathiraj Sampathkumaran, who also holds the post of Chamundi Temple Executive Officer and others were present during the Minister's inspection.

Speaking on the occasion, Pramoda Devi, who herself has designed the Logo, said that she was very much delighted to be an alumnus of the University.

Pointing out that the University was established by Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar, she said that she felt proud to be a part of the royal family.

Stating that her father-in-law Sri Jayachamaraja Wadiyar had bagged five gold medals and her husband Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar had bagged three gold medals of the University, Pramoda Devi said that she took great pride in designing the Centenary Convocation Logo.

Recalling that she had also designed the Logo for the UoM Centenary celebrations held in 2016, she thanked all those who helped her in Graphic Design.

UoM Vice-Chancellor Prof. G. Hemantha Kumar, who presided, thanked Pramoda Devi for designing the Logo.

Recalling the journey of the University over the century, Prof. Hemantha Kumar said that the UoM has the distinction of conferring Honorary Doctorate degrees on great personalities like Jawaharlal Nehru, V.K. Krishna Menon and Dr. Rajendra Prasad and the University will continue to honour great achievers and personalities.

Highlighting the UoM's plan for setting up an Engineering College of its own, the VC said that a blue-print has been prepared in this regard. Also, preparations for Centenary Museum has already begun, with co-operation from all the 56 Departments of the University and Post-Graduate Centres at Hassan, Mandya and Chamarajanagar.

Recounting that the University celebrated its Centenary in a grand manner in 2015, the VC said that the University has got one more chance to celebrate with the Centenary Convocation, which is most likely to take place next month.

Stating that the University has invited a tall leader for the Centenary Convocation, he hoped that the UoM's wish will be fulfilled. *(It may be mentioned here that Prof. Hemantha Kumar had met Prime Minister Narendra Modi along with MPs Pratap Simha and Tejasvi Surya in July last and extended a formal invitation to him to attend the event. End of Rs. 2,000 notes?

Chests which hold Rs. 2,000 notes in ATMs will be replaced with notes of Rs. 100 or Rs. 200 denominations. Out of the four cassettes within ATMs, three will have Rs. 500 notes and the fourth will be filled with Rs. 100 or Rs. 200 notes. Many ATMs have already replaced cassettes holding Rs. 2,000 notes, while many are in the process to complete it within a year's time, reports said.

As per bank officials, the highest-value currency will remain a legal tender, but it will gradually be phased out of circulation. Efforts are underway to recalibrate about 2,40,000 ATMs to replace Rs. 2,000 notes with Rs. 500 notes.

Early this month, top public sector banks issued instructions to its senior officials to restrict the circulation of Rs. 2,000 currency notes. The officials were also asked not to create panic among customers. They were asked to accept the notes from bank customers.

In October last year, the RBI had informed that it had not printed a single bank note of Rs. 2,000 denomination in Fiscal Year (FY)-20 as it had stopped the printing of the high-value currency temporarily on security grounds.

The students — N.M. Samarth Raj, M. Sandeep, Swati Hegde, C.S. Shreejan and L. Tejas — created a unique robot 'Agrobot,' which solves the basic problems of farmers involving multi-tasking options, which helps the farmers save money from buying different tools for different operations. The robotic arm uses a camera module which detects whether the fruit is ripe or not using machine learning technique and after detection the robotic arm plucks the ripened fruit. By implementing all these features in a single robot, it not only helps farmers save money but also reduces dependency on labourers.

Bonhomie between bêtes noires marks BSY's 77th birthday bash

Several leaders hail fighting spirit of Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa, the Lingayat strongman

Bengaluru, Feb. 28 (UNI& Agencies)- Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa's 77th birthday celebrations at the sprawling Palace Grounds in Bengaluru last evening provided a rare sight, that of bonhomie between political opponents — and some honest confessions too.

If former Chief Ministers S.M. Krishna and Siddharamaiah praised Yediyurappa for his fighting spirit, BJP National General Secretary (Organisation) B.L. Santhosh, who is not known to share a cosy equation with Yediyurappa, acknowledged the latter's role in building the party up from scratch in Karnataka.

With a green shawl draped over his shoulder and a silver plough in his hands, surrounded by Party colleagues and friends from politics, Yediyurappa celebrated his birthday at the gala event that was organised by his family. Hundreds of supporters and fans flocked to Palace Grounds to felicitate Yediyurappa.

Mass leader

Banners wishing the Chief Minister lined the roads leading to the venue. Carefully themed to reflect the colours of the BJP, an image of a smiling Yediyurappa set in a saffron background welcomed his well-wishers. For a man who broke the BJP's unstated age limit of 75 years for any elected post, Yediyurappa's 77th birthday bash saw him asserting himself as a mass leader whose charisma and connect with the people and party is undiminished.

Apart from Defence Minister Rajnath Singh, Yediyurappa's Cabinet colleagues, MPs and Union Ministers from Karnataka, D.V. Sadananda Gowda, Pralhad Joshi and Suresh Angadi, Central leaders of the BJP including Muralidhar Rao, writer Dr. Siddalingaiah came together to wish the BJP leader.

Siddu-BSY moments

The high point of the event, however, was Congress veteran and Opposition leader in the Karnataka Assembly, Siddharamaiah, who released a coffee table book. Putting aside political differences, the former CM recalled their debut in the Legislative Assembly in the 1980s and how their journeys have been similar. "Yediyurappa did not become Chief Minister overnight. He has had to struggle, much like me, having ventured into the rough and tumble of politics with no background in the field," Siddharamaiah said.

FRIENDS-TURNED-FOES: Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa being greeted by former CM and Congress leader Siddharamaiah in Bengaluru last evening as Defence Minister Rajnath Singh, State BJP President Nalin Kumar Kateel, former External Affairs Minister S.M. Krishna, BJP National General Secretary (Organisation) B.L. Santhosh and Union Ministers D.V. Sadananda Gowda and Pralhad Joshi look on.

"Yediyurappa is one of the few leaders in Karnataka who understands the State well. If BJP has come to power in Karnataka, it is no doubt because of Yediyurappa. As the CM, he will face tremendous pressure and I wish him strength to withstand it," said Siddharamaiah.

Human relations important

Siddharamaiah saw a bit of himself and his journey in Yediyurappa too. "Yediyurappa did not become a CM straight away. In 1983, we entered the Assembly. I became a Chief Minister five years after he did. He took oath as CM four times; I took oath only once. Both of us had no political lineage. We both came from ordinary families. But, we fought our way through. Only those who come through struggle can understand the problems of the common man," he said.

"Politics does not beckon any one. You choose to enter politics," he added, saying that he was here to wish the CM on an important milestone in his life. "We oppose each other ideologically. Politics is different but human relations are important," Siddharamaiah said.

Former External Affairs Minister S.M. Krishna recounted his long association with Yediyurappa. "He is short-tempered but his anger does not last long" said Krishna, recalling Yediyurappa's stint as the leader of Opposition.

"Yediyurappa has a special trait. He keeps his word. In politics, often we cannot keep our promises owing to different kinds of pressures. But Yediyurappa is an exception. I am happy to see that this event is cutting across party lines. This is how politics should be. This kind of reconciliation beyond political considerations is akin to Karnataka. It is our tradition and we are here to uphold it," said Krishna.

B.L. Santhosh was all praises

B.L. Santhosh recounted the days when both Yediyurappa and Ananth Kumar worked hard to strengthen the party. "BJP has its presence in all the States as we have committed party workers. But, if the party has not come to power in southern States, unlike Karnataka, it is because they do not have a leader like Yediyurappa," said Santhosh.

Santhosh, often referred to as Yediyurappa's bête noire, was all praise for not just the CM, but also his late wife Mythradevi who, he recalled, had served him food several times during his time as RSS Pracharak. Santhosh was also the only invitee who credited Yediyurappa's family for the event as well as giving him the strength to lead.

Poet Dr. Siddalingaiah, in the felicitation speech, compared the journey of Prime Minister Narendra Modi and that of Yediyurappa, saying, "I believe that a chaiwala becoming the PM of this country, and the son of a vegetable vendor becoming the CM, was possible only because of democracy."

"Yediyurappa-ji is a born fighter. 'Once a fighter always a fighter' and Yediyurappa has played an important role in strengthening the party organisation at the grass roots in Karnataka. He has always fought for people's cause," said Defence Minister Rajnath Singh.

CM recalls Vajpayee

Yediyurappa thanked his well wishers for making it a special occasion and also recalled his 60th birthday celebration, when Atal Bihari Vajpayee had graced the felicitation ceremony. "This time, I am honoured to have Defence Minister Rajnath Singh gracing this occasion," he said.

Remembering the late Ananth Kumar, Yediyurappa said, "Ananth Kumar had a big role in BJP's growth in Karnataka. We criss-crossed the State on a bicycle to build the party and I have many challenges to face and works to be accomplished. I am sure I will get the necessary support from my party colleagues and the cooperation from the Opposition leader Siddharamaiah."

While most of his Cabinet colleagues were present at the event, seniors like K.S. Eshwarappa, Deputy Chief Minister Laxman Savadi and B. Sriramulu gave it a miss, but not before personally wishing the CM. A souvenir 'Danivariyada Dheemantha' was also released at the event.

A hardworking CM, praises PM Modi

A FARMER LEADER WITH A SILVER PLOUGH: Defence Minister Rajnath Singh presents a silver plough to Yediyurappa as former CMs Siddharamaiah and S.M. Krishna look on.

Bengaluru, Feb. 28 (UNI)- Prime Minister Narendra Modi yesterday wished Karnataka Chief Minister and veteran BJP leader B.S. Yediyurappa on his 77th birthday. Modi hailed Yediyurappa as a 'hardworking' Chief Minister and wished him long life and good health.

"Birthday greetings to Karnataka's hardworking CM BSYBJP Ji. He is passionately working for the State's progress, especially on farmer welfare and rural development. I pray for his long life and good health," the Prime Minister tweeted.

Union Ministers like Nirmala Sitharaman and Nitin Gadkari among others also joined in wishing Yediyurappa on his big day. Even rivals such as former PM H.D. Deve Gowda and former CM H.D. Kumaraswamy set aside their bitter past to wish Yediyurappa.

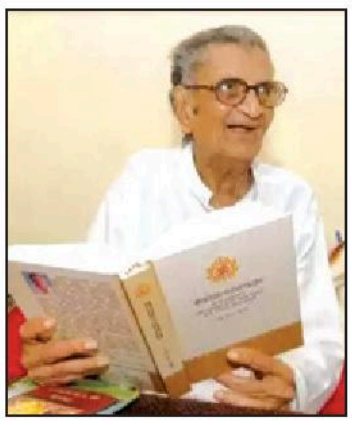
Pandit Sudhakar Chaturvedi passes away at age 121

This Vedic Scholar was Postman to Gandhiji and witness to Jallianwala Bagh Massacre



Pandit Sudhakar Chaturvedi, who was a close confidante of Mahatma Gandhi since 1915 and involved in India's freedom struggle, passed away yesterday (Feb. 27) morning, at the age of 121, at his residence in Jayangar 5th Block, Bengaluru.

A centenarian freedom fighter, vedic scholar and a former journalist who had witnessed the Jallianwala Bagh massacre, Sudhakar Krishna Rao was better known as Pandit Sudhakar "Chaturvedi" since he was well-versed in all the four 'Vedas.'

He was being looked after by the daughters of Arya Mitra who was the former Deputy Commissioner of Mysuru.

Born on Rama Navami day on Apr. 20, 1897, there was a grand plan to celebrate his birthday this Rama Navami, but the fate willed it otherwise.

Sudhakar Krishna Rao was born in Tumakuru's Kyathasandra. When he was in School, Sudhakar Chaturvedi moved to Haridwar under the guidance of his father to join the Arya Samaj. Known as "Postman to Gandhi," several reports claimed that Gandhiji fondly called him "Karnataki."

Sudhakar Chaturvedi was deeply influenced by the Vedas and the teachings of Swami Shraddhanand. In his youth, he joined a newspaper named 'Vijay,' which was run by Swami Shraddhanand. Sudhakar Chaturvedi is believed to have been deployed for reporting at Amritsar when he witnessed the Jallianwala Bagh massacre on April 13, 1919, which killed 379 Indians. His eyewitness account of the massacre is documented in the Kannada book by N. Nagalaxmi, titled 'Shataayushi Pandita Sudhakara Chaturvedi.'

Association with Gandhiji

It was a strange association because while Sudhakar Chaturvedi was a Madhwa Brahmin and a staunch Arya Samajist, Gandhiji was a committed Sanathanist but their relationship transcended their belief systems to join hands in the common cause of fighting for India's independence.

Sudhakar Chaturvedi learnt four Vedas, Darshana Shastras through Gurukula System of education at Kangdi. He stayed in Sabarmati Ashram and probably he was the only person who had no hesitation in pointing out to Gandhi whenever he (Gandhi) made a bad judgement.

While he was residing at the Sabarmati Ashram with Mahatma Gandhi, Chaturvedi was jailed for taking part in the Khilafat Movement. This has been brought out in the book he wrote in Kannada titled 'Halavu Nenapugalu.'

In writing this book, the primary help was the material gathered by N. Nagalakshmi and N. Balasubramanyam. The collected material for the book has been suitably refined by Prof. L.S. Seshagiri Rao and Prof. N. Geethacharya with a foreword by G. Venkatasubbaiah. It also includes a brief write-up in English under the title 'Reminiscences of a Centenarian' by Prof. L.S. Seshagiri Rao. The uniqueness of the book is its authenticity because it is an eyewitness account. It is a fascinating account of freedom struggle and part played by various political personalities.

I have translated 30 episodes from the book into English. I have not seen any account of it to my knowledge in any other book or other mediums. Everyday, I listen to the 5-minute radio programme 'Gandhi Chintanamale,' by various persons and there is no mentioning of this book or its content.

My wife and I visited Sudhakar Chaturvedi on many occasions. The last meeting with him was when Chaturvedi performed a homa on Feb. 16, 2019. He used to perform homas, religiously, every Saturday at his house. May his soul rest in peace.

Pronunciation: pahn-TIF-uh-kayt
Meaning: To speak or express opinions in pompous or dogmatic way; to officiate as pontiff; to celebrate pontifical mass.
Origin: In ancient Rome, the pontifices were powerful priests who administered the part of civil law that regulated relationships with the deities recognised by the State. Their name, pontifex, derives from the Latin words pons, meaning "bridge," and facere, meaning "to make," and some think it may have developed because the group was associated with a sacred bridge over the river Tiber (although there is no proof of that). With the rise of Catholicism, the title pontifex was transferred to the Pope and to Catholic bishops. Pontificate derives from pontifex, and in its earliest English uses it referred to things associated with such prelates. By the late 1800s, pontificate was also being used derisively for individuals who spoke as if they had the authority of an ecclesiastic.
Example: Stan loves to hear himself talk and will often pontificate on even the most trivial issues.

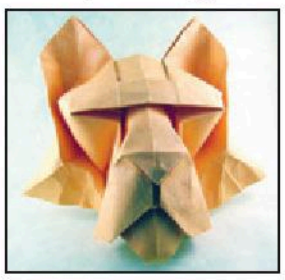
THE ODD WORD

Pacation

The act of making peace.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Paper Tiger



Meaning: A person who appears to have power but is in reality ineffectual.
Origin: This expression became known in the West as a slogan that Mao's Chinese communist State used against their opponents, particularly the US Government. It appears as one of the quotations, or as he preferred to call them 'supreme directives' in the Quotations from Chairman Mao Zedong - better known as The Little Red Book, first published in 1964:
"Imperialism and all Reactionaries are Paper Tigers". Mao didn't coin the phrase; it had been an idiom in the Chinese language for some time. The first time it is recorded in print in English is in Sir John F. Davis' book The Chinese, 1836.
Example: Looks can be deceiving. He may be just a paper tiger.

QUOTE BOX

Packing for a trip can be exciting, but unpacking is always depressing.
